

THE CODE OF CONDUCT

- It is expected that all Directors and Employees are expected to observe high standards of integrity and fair dealings in relation to clients, customers and staff.

- All Business practices will be fair, transparent and in accordance with law and to the best interest of Modaraba. There should be no false statements or manipulation to avail personal gain or benefit. All business transactions will be for achieving reasonable & just profit only.

- Our objective would be to provide financial products and services and to deal in other businesses within the spirit of the Islamic Sharia and in accordance with the law to contribute in the promotion of the community and industry towards fulfilling our responsibilities in building of progressive society.